A MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS ION SANCHO:

“A Republic – If you can Keep It!”

Benjamin Franklin’s quote has been the touchstone of my public service philosophy over the past 28 years. As I write this last missive, I am deeply humbled and truly grateful for the honor of serving as your Supervisor of Elections since 1989.

There have been many challenges to overcome during my tenure as Supervisor, ranging from the transformation of a damaged agency whose bungling led to thousands of Leon Countians’ disenfranchisement in 1986, to uncovering vulnerabilities in certain electronic voting systems. Every challenge I have faced and overcome, as your Supervisor of Elections, has granted me further insights to Franklin’s prescient quote.

Self-government requires vigilance, preparation, and hard work; the same efforts you, the voter, face as you decide whom you will vote for in this election. But as you make that decision, know that we at the Leon County Supervisor of Elections Office are ready to count your vote fairly and accurately. We have expanded our Early Voting hours as well as added new Branch Office Voting opportunities. (page 10)

Your vote is the most important part of the electoral process. Do not listen to those who would belittle our elections this year by complaining about choices we do or do not have. Do not denigrate those who have made the ultimate sacrifice on our behalf by not voting. We have been granted a right that is very precious, a right that people all over the world would fight and die for if given that chance – the right to vote. Therefore, let everyone know that in Leon County, Florida, we have the wisest and most well educated voters in the State – and we vote.

Goodbyes can be hard, and as I leave this office I want to leave with you a quote that my father gifted me from one of his heroes, Edward R. Murrow. “Our major obligation is not to mistake slogans for solutions”. As voters, wiser words could not be spoken. On November 8, 2016, choose the future, choose to vote!

ELECTRONIC POLLBOOKS

Electronic pollbooks are an efficient and reliable technology Leon County has used since 2014 and were introduced county-wide in the Presidential Preference Primary this year. All voting locations will be safely and securely connected to our voter database. This connectivity offers many advantages for our voters and pollworkers including:

- Faster and more accurate voter check-in.
- No more lines by last name means faster service! Any available election team member can assist you. Just look for the “Next in Line” floor mat.
- Real time verification of voter information, including address changes and Vote By Mail Ballot status.
- Ability to monitor voter turnout throughout Election Day.

Share your voting experience on Twitter, Facebook or Instagram using #LeonVoting.

(We want to hear from you, but remember Florida law prohibits pictures inside the polling location. Please Tweet responsibly.)

BALLOT AUDIT SYSTEM – TRUST YET VERIFY

Leon County is one of the few counties in Florida that conduct an 100% audit on each ballot after every election. This audit system, launched in 2014, is completely independent from the voting system. The results of the two systems are compared for discrepancies after each election in a publically held meeting. Your responsibility is to vote; ours is to verify that your voting system continues to count your votes accurately.

SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS OFFICE HELPS WITH HERMINE RELIEF

In the days following Hurricane Hermine, several of our staff members volunteered to help deliver water and aid packages to Leon County relief sites.
