Here you can view your voter info, see your specific sample ballot, locate your Election Day polling place, check Early Voting schedules and locations, and even request a Vote-by-Mail ballot!
- Check your Voter Information Card. Your polling place address and party affiliation are listed on the card, along with other important information.
- Call our office at (850) 606-8683 and we will be happy to confirm your information.

For assistance, please call us at (850) 606-8683. You may have a new polling place since the last time you voted, so please check before you head to the polls!

Your polling place is open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on August 20, Election Day. Photo and Signature ID

When you vote in person at an Early Voting site or at your Election Day polling place, you must present a physical current and valid photo ID from this list:

- Florida Driver's License
- Florida Identification Card
- US Passport
- Debit or Credit Card
- Military ID
- Student ID
- Retirement Center ID
- Neighborhood Association ID
- Public Assistance ID
- Veteran Health ID issued by the United States Department of Veteran Affairs

If your photo ID does not include your signature, you must present an additional ID that includes your signature.

Your Voter Information Card does not count as ID. If you did not bring valid ID to the polls, you can still vote using a Provisional Ballot.

A Provisional Ballot is a backup for a voter who forgets their ID or whose eligibility cannot be verified at the polling site. It allows us time to research the voter's eligibility and count the ballot if the voter is eligible. Some Provisional Ballot voters may need to submit additional information for their ballot to be counted. The deadline to submit this is 5 p.m. on Thursday, August 22.

Voters may track their Provisional Ballot status at LeonVotes.gov or by contacting our office at (850) 606-8683.

Primary Election Day – August 20, 2024

An Exciting Primary Election with Several Contests that Voters Will Decide in August!

Voters often think that Primary elections are only for partisan voters. But in Florida, and especially in Leon County, many contests are nonpartisan and appear on Primary Election ballots. In fact, this August several important contests will be decided in the Primary. If voters wait until November, they will miss their opportunity to have their voice heard in those races.

Along those lines, this year we have a rare occurrence on the Primary ballot – a Universal Primary Contest. Normally in a Primary Election voters can only vote in a partisan contest if they are members of that party. However, a Universal Primary is an exception to that rule. They occur when a partisan contest only has candidates from a single party and no other candidates run for the office. When this happens, all voters can vote in this contest during the Primary. So, even though the Property Appraiser race is a partisan contest between two Democratic candidates, all voters will have the opportunity to vote for their choice. And since the winner of this contest will be decided entirely in the August Primary, this reinforces the importance of voting in every election.

While I have your attention, let me highlight some new programs my office is kicking off. As part of our mission to continually improve our services, we are now pre-paying the postage on Vote-by-Mail ballot return envelopes. That's right – you no longer need a stamp, making it even easier to vote by mail. The deadline to request a mail ballot is August 8th, so if you want to vote by mail, don't delay! And please make sure to return it as soon as possible to ensure we have it in hand by 7 p.m. on Election Day.

I'm also proud to announce a new initiative between my office and the League of Women Voters, Leon County Government, and Marpan Recycling. Together, we've created a new program to recycle old campaign signs. After Election Day, voters and campaigns can drop off old campaign signs at bins located at libraries and other spots throughout the County. I encourage you to use these bins to transform your old signs into reusable materials and help keep Leon County beautiful.

Visit LeonVotes.gov to learn more about the recycling program, request your Vote-by-Mail ballot, confirm your voter registration information, or locate an Early Voting site or your Election Day polling place. That way, you will be Election Ready for this exciting Primary!

Your vote is your voice. Please speak up, vote, and be heard!
