Florida Supervisors of Elections to Offer Scholarship Opportunities

Leon County, FL – Mark S. Earley, Supervisor of Elections for Leon County, announces a scholarship opportunity for Florida college and university students. Each year, the Florida Supervisor of Elections (FSE), the statewide association for Florida’s election officials, awards three $1,200 scholarships to full-time students enrolled in a senior college or university in Florida. The winners will be announced and recognized at the 2021 FSE Summer Conference. “Our democracy and our elections rely on having an educated and informed electorate,” said Supervisor Earley. “In that spirit, I encourage eligible FAMU, FSU, and TCC students to apply for the FSE Scholarship.”

Applicants must be either a Political Science, Public/Business Administration, or Journalism/Mass Communication major, in addition to meeting other eligibility requirements. For the full list of requirements and the application packet, please visit www.LeonVotes.gov/About-Us or contact the Elections Office using the information below.

Applications must be received by Friday, March 26, 2021 to be considered. All applications received by the deadline will be reviewed. Interviews will be scheduled with applicants who meet the eligibility requirements. Completed applications should be mailed or hand-delivered to the county Elections Office in which the applicant is registered to vote. Applications for Leon County voters can be mailed or delivered to the following addresses:
