Leon County Supervisor of Elections Partners with Leon County Government for National Voter Registration Day

Leon County, FL – Mark S. Earley, Supervisor of Elections for Leon County, partners with Leon County Government for National Voter Registration Day at all Leon County Public Library locations. On Tuesday, September 19, 2023, the Leon County Supervisor of Elections Office and Leon County Government will join with thousands of other organizations across the country to take part in National Voter Registration Day, a nonpartisan civic holiday that aims to help all eligible voters participate in our democracy.

The national day of action will involve coordinated field, technology, and media efforts to register voters and raise awareness of state-specific registration policies, deadlines, and voting information. “Registering to vote is the first step in casting your ballot,” said Supervisor Earley. “This year we are partnering with Leon County Government so that residents will have quick and easy access to in-person voter registration services in their communities at all Leon County Public Library locations. We are also working with engaged FAMU, FSU, and TCC students and organizations to offer voter registration opportunities on campuses. I encourage every eligible Leon County resident to register to vote or confirm your registration as we approach the start of the 2024 Election Cycle.”

Voters may register to vote in Florida using any of these methods:
