Leon County Supervisor of Elections Announces End of Candidate Qualifying for 2022 Election Cycle

Leon County, FL – Mark S. Earley, Supervisor of Elections for Leon County, announces the end of the candidate qualifying period for the 2022 Election Cycle. The qualifying period ended at Noon on Friday, June 17. In order to qualify for office and appear on the ballot, candidates must have filed complete qualifying paperwork with the Elections Office during this period.

“My office has finished processing all qualifying paperwork for local candidates in Leon County,” said Supervisor Earley. “This year we have a great number of candidates who will appear on the ballot, so all Leon County voters, regardless of party affiliation, will have many options. Some of these non-partisan races will be decided entirely during the Primary Election. If you skip the Primary, you let others decide who represents you in these important offices. That’s why I encourage every voter, regardless of party affiliation, to get out and vote in the Primary Election.”

A list of qualified candidates for local races can be found below. These local races are all non-partisan. Additional information regarding local candidates can be found at LeonVotes.gov. Candidates for federal, state, and multicounty office qualify with the Florida Division of Elections. For information on those candidates, visit dos.myflorida.com/elections.
