Leon County Supervisor of Elections Office Informs Voters of Voter Registration Mailings

Leon County, FL – Mark S. Earley, Supervisor of Elections for Leon County, informs voters of upcoming voter registration mailings. “Ensuring the accuracy and integrity of our voter rolls is an important responsibility of my office,” said Supervisor Earley. “Over the next several days, my office will mail out just under 12,000 Address Confirmation Final Notice (ACFN) letters to people who are registered to vote in Leon County but official sources tell us may no longer live in Florida.”

As required by law, the Elections Office conducts a voter registration list maintenance program. The program follows Florida statutes and the National Voter Registration Act, balancing election integrity needs with voters’ rights to due process. As part of the program, we mail ACFN letters to voters when we receive information from official sources that voters have moved out of Florida. The letters give voters the opportunity to tell us that they still live in Leon County to prevent inadvertent removal from Florida’s voter rolls. If a voter does not respond to the letter, we set their registration record to “inactive” status. Inactive voters can still vote, but we will remove an inactive voter from the voter rolls if the voter does not vote or update their record within the next two general elections.

Florida recently became a member of the Electronic Registration Information Center (ERIC). ERIC is a multi-state partnership between 30 states and the District of Columbia dedicated to improving the accuracy of voter rolls. This year’s list maintenance program will be the first that includes data from the ERIC partnership. Membership in ERIC allows Supervisors of Elections throughout Florida to easily compare voter information with other states who are members of ERIC. This helps to efficiently maintain up-to-date voter rolls and also identify potential voters who are not yet registered to vote, while reducing costs to taxpayers.

Voters with questions are encouraged to contact the Supervisor of Elections Office by email at Vote@LeonVotes.gov, or by phone at (850) 606-8683, Monday – Friday 8:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Frequently Asked Questions

- 1) Why did I receive an Address Confirmation Final Notice letter from the Leon County Supervisor of Elections Office?
 - a. We mailed you this letter because we received information from one or more government sources that you may no longer live in Florida.
- 2) What should I do with the letter?
 - a. Please read the letter carefully, complete the form on the back of the letter, and mail it to our office in the prepaid envelope. If all you need to do is confirm or update your address in Leon County, you can instead call or email our office. Once we hear from you, we will update your voter registration record with the latest information.
- 3) I received a letter from the Leon County Supervisor of Elections Office addressed to someone who no longer lives here. What should I do with the letter?
 - a. Please check the “Not at This Address” box on the envelope and place the letter back in the mail. No extra postage needed. When we receive the letter, we will update the voter’s record to reflect that they no longer live at the address.
- 4) How can I look-up my voter registration information?
 - a. You can look-up your voter registration information by visiting LeonVotes.gov and clicking the “Your Voter Info” button. Or, you can call or email our office.
- 5) My voter registration information says that my record is inactive. Can I still vote?
 - a. Yes, you can vote if your voter registration record is inactive. To re-activate your voter registration, all you need to do is update your record or simply vote in the next election. The easiest way to update your voter registration is to use Florida’s online voter registration system, RegistertoVoteFlorida.gov. If you want to Vote-by-Mail, you will need to request your Vote-by-Mail ballot. Please call or email our office for assistance.
- 6) What happens if my registration remains inactive and I do not vote or update my record?
 - a. If your voter registration status is inactive for at least two general elections, then you will be removed from the Florida Voter Registration System. Once you have been removed, you will need to register again in order to vote in Florida.
- 7) Where can I learn more about ERIC?
 - a. You can learn more about ERIC by visiting their website, ERICStates.org.
