

In Tallahassee for college? Register to vote!

If you moved to Tallahassee to attend school, you have 2 choices when registering to vote:

REGISTER IN YOUR HOME COUNTY

If you moved here from a county outside of Leon, you can register to vote in your home county or keep your current voter registration there. This way, you can vote in your home county's local elections, as well as state and national elections.

HOW DO I REGISTER?

Visit

RegisterToVoteFlorida.gov to register to vote or to update your registration. Use your address from your home county as your residential address and your Tallahassee address as your mailing address.

NOTE: If your home county is outside of Florida, contact your state's elections office to register to vote.

HOW DO I VOTE?

After you register to vote, contact your home county's Supervisor of Elections office for a Vote-By-Mail request form (usually available online). Then, you can vote by mail in your home county.

REGISTER IN LEON COUNTY

Even if you still use your home address for other documents, you can register to vote here in Leon County. Once registered here, you can vote in Leon County's local elections, plus state and national elections.

HOW DO I REGISTER?

Visit

RegisterToVoteFlorida.gov to register to vote or to update your registration to Leon County. Use your Tallahassee address as your residential address.

NOTE: If you live in a dorm, use the DORM NAME (not the dorm's street address or your campus mailbox number) as your residential address on the registration form. Then, use your campus mailbox or another address as your mailing address.

HOW DO I VOTE?

There are three ways to vote in Leon County: Early Voting, Vote-By-Mail, or you can vote on Election Day. Visit LeonVotes.org to learn more about voting in Leon County.

College Student Voting FAQs

Voting is important! Make sure you know the facts before you head to the polls.

HOW DO I KNOW IF I'M REGISTERED TO VOTE?

Visit RegisterToVoteFlorida.gov and click "Am I Already Registered?" on the home page. If you are not registered or if the information in your voter record is incorrect, you can use the same website to register to vote or to update your voter information.

IS THERE A DEADLINE TO REGISTER?

Yes. In Florida, you must register to vote at least 29 days before any election. Once registered, you may update your voter information any time at RegisterToVoteFlorida.gov; however, we recommend always making changes as soon as possible.

I REGISTERED - WHAT HAPPENS NOW?

After registering to vote in Florida, you should receive a new Voter Information Card from your county's Supervisor of Elections within a couple of weeks. If you do not receive this, contact your county's elections office to make sure they have your correct address.

HOW WILL I KNOW WHEN & WHERE TO VOTE?

If you are registered in Leon County, visit LeonVotes.org to find election dates, polling locations, sample ballots, and other important voting information.

If you moved here from a county or jurisdiction outside of Leon, you can register in your home county, or keep your current registration there if you are already registered. Contact that office for information on voting. This way, you can vote in your home county's local elections, as well as state and national elections.
