Leon County, FL – Mark S. Earley, Supervisor of Elections for Leon County, announces the qualified local candidates for the 2024 Election Cycle. The qualifying period ended at noon on Friday, June 14. In order to qualify for local office and appear on the ballot, candidates must have filed complete qualifying paperwork and any qualifying fees with the Elections Office by the deadline.

“My office has finished processing all qualifying paperwork for local candidates in Leon County,” said Supervisor Earley. “This year we have many candidates and races who will appear on the ballot, so all Leon County voters will have many choices to make this year.
