Florida Supervisors of Elections Offer Scholarship Opportunity

Leon County, FL – Mark S. Earley, Supervisor of Elections for Leon County, announces a scholarship opportunity for Florida college and university students. Each year, the Florida Supervisor of Elections (FSE), the statewide association for Florida’s election officials, awards four $1,200 scholarships to full-time students enrolled in a senior college or university in Florida. “Our democracy and our elections rely on having an educated and informed electorate,” said Supervisor Earley. “In that spirit, I encourage eligible Leon County college and university students to apply for the FSE Scholarship.”

Applicants must meet all the following eligibility requirements:

- Registered Florida voter.
- Live in Florida for at least the past two years.
- Majoring in Political Science, Public Administration, Business Administration, or Journalism/Mass Communication.
- Enrolled or accepted as a full-time student in a senior college or university in Florida.
- Have at least a “C” average or above for the previous year.
- At least a junior in college.

Applications are available online at LeonVotes.gov/About-Us/Scholarship or by contacting the Elections Office using the information below. Students must send applications to the county Elections Office where they are registered to vote. The deadline to apply is Friday, March 11, 2022.

Election staff will review all applications received by the deadline and will schedule interviews with applicants who meet the eligibility requirements. The Leon County Elections Office will then select one finalist to send to the statewide FSE Scholarship Committee for consideration.

Voters with questions are encouraged to contact the Supervisor of Elections Office by email at Vote@LeonVotes.gov, or by phone at (850) 606-8683, Monday – Friday 8:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.
